Membership Application Form

Please complete both sides of this form regardless of whether or not you are a member of the Wellington Rowing Club from previous years. The club's Constitution requires every person wishing to join the club to fill in a membership form; such membership application must be approved by the Committee.

This application form must be completed by every rower and coxswain after attending the first training session in a season or the first session attended after June 1 every year. The payment of $150 base fee is due with this application. This will be deducted from the annual subscription.
